

WHEAT TOOK BIG JUMP

Advanced 6 Cents on Chicago Board.

Raise Created Great Excitement.

Much Local Interest in the Market.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

Chicago, June 23.—There was great excitement here on the board of trade in both the grain and provision pits. July wheat closed at 88 cents, an advance of 6 cents over yesterday.

The report of the raise in wheat was greeted with cheers in Benton Harbor. The local traders have been buying considerable wheat lately, and the raise will mean hundreds of dollars in their pockets. As far as could be learned no one local trader has enough invested in the cereal to yield him a big fortune.

The principal local traders anticipate that wheat will go as high as $1.50 before the market breaks.

A. R. Hinkle, who is said to have made some money on the board last winter, says:

"I have always believed that wheat would climb up, and I should have invested heavily in it had not all my time been taken by other business this summer. When the September wheat comes in I look for a big increase in value. Wheat is the safest thing on the market to invest in, at present."

The Pere Marquette will have two large excursions to Benton Harbor and St. Joseph.

THE KEY TO THE SITUATION.

RASPBERRIES.

BENTON HARBOR MAKES FIRST SHIPMENT.

Two Millburg Growers Have Race to Land First Berries at the Dock.

The first raspberries this season were shipped from Benton Harbor last evening. There were 12 cases in all, the G. & M. line receiving six and the home line six. The berries brought $2 a case on the streets.

There was something of a rivalry between the various growers to acquire the honor of shipping the first case of raspberries. Two farmers raced in from near Millburg early in the evening. Charles Tull arrived first and to him falls the honor. He shipped one case of reds and one of blacks.

Robert Shriver was the first to book raspberries at the home line office. The crop of raspberries will be very large this year according to present prospects.

The strawberry season is almost finished. Less than a thousand cases were shipped out of the city last evening and those shipped were of an inferior grade. The Berrien county berry has not been up to its former record for quality this season but it has commanded a good price.

Toledo were sent 900 cases of cherries on last evening's steamers. Growers are paying considerable attention to their peaches the e days. The work of thinning is going on continually. One farmer yesterday on one of his trees picked off 30 peaches to 1 he left to ripen. As it is there will be an enormous crop.

STATE CONVENTION.

Grand Rapids Making Big Preparations for Next Week.

Grand Rapids, June 23.—Extensive preparations are now under way for the republican state convention which will convene in the auditorium here next Wednesday. The big hall is now being decorated handsomely with flags and bunting and later potted plants, palms and cut flowers will add to its beauty. A platform is being built across the hall just in front of the stage for the accommodation of newspaper men. Many of the chairs will be removed from the main hall so as to give the delegates room to move about. It is planned to give the main floor to their exclusive use. There are 340 delegates and it is probable 1,500 or 2,000 other interested members of the party from different parts of the state will attend. The spectators will be given seats in the gallery or on the stage and will be admitted by ticket only.

Arrangements were made to accommodate 100 more newspaper men on the stage. The convention management has been exceptionally liberal in its accommodations offered the press representatives. They are all to be supplied with "press" badges and tickets. The convention will convene Wednesday morning and close some time Thursday.

FOR JUDGE OF PROBATE

Boom Launched for F. H. Ellsworth.

Will Have Solid Support of This City.

The Office of Prosecuting Attorney.

Benton Harbor republicans will go into the county convention at St. Joseph next month with a solid delegation for City Attorney F. H. Ellsworth for the nomination of probate judge.

For several weeks the advisability of Mr. Ellsworth entering the field has been discussed and this morning Mr. Ellsworth consented that his name should be used in that connection.

Mr. Ellsworth is not without a knowledge of the duties of the office. For three and a half years he was an assistant in the office of Probate Judge McClure in Sanilac county. In 1891 he was graduated from the Detroit college of law and admitted to the bar. In 1893 he came to Benton Harbor and practiced his profession. Four years ago he formed a co-partnership with George M. Valentine, the present prosecuting attorney. His popularity is best expressed in the fact that for three successive city administrations he has been chosen city attorney, and the vote at the last election of the council stood Ellsworth 7 and scattering 1. He is in the race to stay and his friends predict that he will win.

Politicians who are well versed in county politics practically concede that Benton Harbor is entitled to the office of prosecuting attorney and have been awaiting Benton Harbor's choice of a candidate.

In an interview with candidates in this city both have agreed to leave the choice to the delegates chosen for the county convention and the one who receives the majority of the votes will be Benton Harbor's candidate and the other will cheerfully support the party's candidate so that there may be perfect harmony in the delegation.

Capt. Napier's Drug Store.

South Haven Tribune, Friday: Capt. E. Napier's drug store opened again this morning on time after being closed yesterday. The reason that the store was closed yesterday was in Chicago and Capt. Napier was called there by telegram and there was no one to leave in charge of the store. As to Mr. Pratt, one of his bondsmen, withdrawing Capt. Napier says he knew nothing about it until this morning when he returned home and found a letter from the county treasurer notifying him that Mr. Pratt desired to withdraw.

He says a new bondsman will be procured. The law we understand gives him several days in which to procure a new one.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

Boone, Iowa, Dec. 14.
No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.
MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McLure's
Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

THE WAR IN CHINA

Further Reports of the Bombardment of Tien-Tsin.

ADMIRAL KEMPF ASKS FOR AID.

A State of Anarchy Reported in Peking—Rumored Massacre at Tien-Tsin of 1,500 Foreigners—Other News.

London, June 23.—The silence of Peking continues unbroken. Four thousand men of the allied forces were having sharp defensive fighting at Tien-Tsin Tuesday and Wednesday, with a prospect of being reinforced Thursday. This is the situation in China as set forth in the British government dispatch.

Americans Engaged.

"Eight hundred Americans are taking part in the fighting at Tien-Tsin," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express, "and they apparently form part of a supplementary force, arriving with German and British after the conflict started. It is impossible to estimate the number of the Chinese there; but they had a surprising number of guns."

Anarchy in Peking.

This information appears to have been brought by the United States gunboat Nashville to Chefoo and telegraphed thence to Shanghai. The Chinese are deserting Shanghai in large numbers and going into the interior. Reports from native sources continue to reach Shanghai of anarchy in Peking. According to these tales the streets are filled day and night with Boxers, who are wholly beyond the control of the Chinese troops and who are working themselves up to a frenzy and clamoring for the death of all foreigners.

It is reported that the British government will immediately send 1,500 marines to China and possibly, according to some of the morning papers, 10,000 of the regulars now with Lord Roberts.

All Europe Alarmed.

European governments in general and the British in particular are now thoroughly awake to the seriousness of the crisis in China, and unless the empress dowager stamps out the Boxer uprising soon she will find her domain swamped with foreign troops and her shores literally lined with hostile navies.

Kempff Seeks Help.

Washington, June 23, 3 a. m.—Late to-night an urgent request came from Admiral Kempff for more troops and ships. Orders were sent to Admiral Remy at Manila to send additional ships to Taku. It is known the Princeton and Marietta have been ordered there, but the officials decline to say if other vessels have been ordered to China. What other troops will be sent and how many will be left to Gen. MacArthur. The situation is evidently becoming more critical. The officials are extremely reticent, but say everything necessary will be done.

Details from Tien-Tsin.

London, June 23.—A late dispatch says: The Chinese commenced to shell the foreign settlement on Sunday last. As it contained a considerable store of ammunition, a mixed force of foreigners stormed the Chinese military college in the town on June 17, seizing the whole of its contents of arms and ammunition. These operations were attended by considerable loss of life.

On the night of the same day the Chinese troops attempted to seize the bridge of boats across the River Pei Ho, but were repulsed with loss. The fighting, however, went on uninterruptedly on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the enemy using large guns.

The Russians, who also have four heavy pieces of artillery and who hold the railroad station at Tien-Tsin, are hard pressed and ammunition is running short. Heavy casualties have already been sustained and the foreign concessions are nearly all burned.

The position of affairs is thus seen to be critical. The relief force, numbering apparently close to 2,500 men, of whom 1,500 are Russians, left Taku on Thursday to cover the 30 miles between that place and Tien-Tsin. It is not yet known what has happened to them, but they were certain to meet with severe opposition.

The sudden death in extreme agony of Li Lien Yen, the favorite of the Chinese empress, known as "the man with the false smile," has caused much joy to Peking, according to local newspapers there. There are hints of poisoning. Li Lien Yen amassed a fortune of 35,000,000 taels by means familiar to Chinese magnates.

Story of a Minister.

Chefoo, June 23.—Rev. Frederick Brown, presiding elder of the Tien-Tsin district of the Methodist Episcopal church, cables to the New York Journal:

"I have just got away from Tien-Tsin on a German gunboat. The city has been bombarded for several days by the Chinese. All the foreign part of Tien-Tsin has been destroyed. Lieut. Wright, of our navy, and 150 others of the white residents, marines and sailors sent up to our assistance are killed or wounded. The American consulate building has been destroyed. Ammunition is almost gone. The garrison is suffering terribly and needs instant help."

Foreigners Massacred.

London, June 23.—A special from Shanghai says that it is reported from Japanese sources that 1,500 foreigners have been massacred at Tien-Tsin.

Go to Relieve Tien-Tsin.

Berlin, June 23.—The commander of the German squadron at Taku has wired as follows to the government:

"A French officer who has arrived from Tien-Tsin, which he left June 20, reports that for three days the city had been bombarded by the Chinese and that the troops of the foreign detachment were short of ammunition. The German cruiser Irene has arrived."

...from Taku to within 15 kilometers of Tien-Tsin.

The Washington government several days ago inquired through United States Ambassador White regarding the whereabouts and safety of a number of American missionaries located within the German sphere of influence in Shan Tung. Thus far the German government has been unable to furnish a satisfactory reply.

The Chinese embassy having received several anonymous letters threatening vengeance should the news of the murder of the German minister in Peking, Baron von Ketteler, prove to be true, it immediately applied to the Berlin police for protection, and a number of men in plain clothing now patrol the precincts of the embassy night and day.

Will Send More Troops.

Washington, June 23.—The only news from China laid before the cabinet meeting Friday was a telegram to the secretary of the navy giving the movement of vessels in Chinese waters. The text of the message, however, was not made public. That the president and the members of the cabinet regard the situation in China as extremely critical is shown by the fact that the preliminary preparations are being made to send forward additional troops in case of need.

A telegram will be sent to Gen. MacArthur at Manila asking him how large a force he can spare should it become necessary to send them to China. No answer is expected to this inquiry before Saturday, when instructions may be sent to have transports and troops in readiness in anticipation of orders to sail.

It is said that it is not the purpose of the president to dispatch these additional troops at once, except in the event that the situation becomes even more grave and critical than at present. The cablegram to MacArthur was a precautionary measure, taken with a view to being in readiness to meet any emergency. The cabinet session was largely occupied by the postmaster general, who had just returned from Philadelphia, in telling the story of the convention.

Feverish Anxiety.

During the afternoon M. Cambon, the French ambassador, and Lord Paunceforte, the British ambassador, visited the state department. These frequent visits to Secretary Hay of the ambassadors of nations interested in the Chinese situation fairly illustrate the feverish anxiety with which every development in the situation is being watched.

Li Hung Chang Talks.

Hong-Kong, June 23.—Li Hung Chang, who was interviewed in Canton Friday, said he would leave for Peking June 27 in obedience to an order from the empress to suppress the Boxers and to make peace with the powers. He endorsed the opinion that he was the only man in China capable of coping with the situation. He said he believed the Boxers to be a "rabble led away by fanaticism and anti-Christian feeling," but he also declared that the native Christian leaders were much to blame, inasmuch as they engendered litigation in the native courts. He asserted that he did not regard the Boxers as a political society, and that in his opinion the empress had been misled and misinformed. Prince Li said he had been officially informed that the Taku forts fired upon the allied fleet because the admirals sent an ultimatum calling for the removal of the soldiers. He does not interpret that action as a declaration of war, and he has not received any instructions to the effect that war has been declared. His remedy for the situation is to decapitate the leaders of the Boxers, to send their ignorant followers home and to make peace with the powers.

WHEAT CROP RUINED.

A Native Grower Says That Fully Two-Thirds Has Been Completely Killed.

Duluth, Minn., June 23.—Oliver Dalrymple, the big wheat grower of North Dakota, writes his son here as follows: "Ten days ago I wrote you one-third of the spring wheat crop had been destroyed by drought. I now am of the opinion that two-thirds of the crop is killed beyond redemption. The Grandin farm is running 90 plows in the wheat fields. I shall start plows at once, and nearly all spring wheat farmers will be plowing under wheat next week unless heavy rains come."

Train Wrecked.

Peoria, Ill., June 23.—A special to the Herald-Transcript says: The Big Four passenger train which left Indianapolis for Peoria Thursday evening at 11 o'clock was wrecked a few miles east of Foster, Ind., at 2:40 Friday morning. The mail car, ladies' coach and sleeper turned over and rolled down an embankment. Four people were injured, among them H. B. Gould and wife, of Peoria, and Charles S. Miller, engineer maintenance of way, Indianapolis. A cloudburst and subsequent heavy rain was the cause of the accident, the tracks being wrecked on account of the rain.

World's W. C. T. U.

Edinburgh, June 23.—The World's Woman's Christian Temperance union opened its annual meeting here under the presidency of Mrs. L. M. A. Stevens, of Maine. Lady Henry Somerset presided at the afternoon session. Among the spectators were Mesdames Bailey, of Rhode Island, and Stevenson, of Massachusetts, and Rev. C. M. Sheldon, of Topeka, Kan.

Goes to His Home.

Milwaukee, June 23.—A Sentinel special from Minocqua, Wis., says Col. W. J. Bryan and party left Friday evening for Lincoln, Neb., where they will remain until after the democratic national convention. Mr. Bryan expressed himself as greatly pleased with his outing.

THREE OAKS READY

For the Big Celebration and Unveiling in That Village
Next Thursday.

IT WILL BE A BIG EVENT.

President E. K. Warren Has Issued a Proclamation to the People in Regard To It.

Three Oaks, June 23.—This village is getting ready for the big celebration and unveiling of the Dewey cannon which will occur here next Thursday. It will be the biggest thing that ever happened in Berrien county. Excursions will be run from all directions and the village will overflow with people. President E. K. Warren has issued the following address to the people:

The celebration connected with the ceremonies of the unveiling of the Dewey cannon which is set to take place in our village on Thursday, June 28, brings to us responsibilities which we as a village have never had. A large number of the invitations issued have been accepted. Many of these are from prominent people at a distance, others from the cities and villages in southwestern Michigan and northern Indiana. We are also expecting that from the farming country and the small adjacent towns there will arrive large numbers in carriages, buggies and wagons. We may be called upon to entertain before the day is over, ten and possibly even twenty times our own population. No city would be able to stand such a strain, and it remains to be seen whether Three Oaks can rise to the occasion or not. In order that we may, all our citizens must unite heartily in the effort to make the day an enjoyable one for our visitors. To insure this, active preparations must be made along lines that would serve to add to the comfort and convenience of our guests of that day. Ordinary business and manufacturing should be suspended and all our citizens plan to devote the day to our guests. Substantial food, lunches, and refreshments of all kinds should be provided in large quantities, not only by the hotels and regular dealers, but also by societies and others who are prepared to serve food for the crowds that will be with us. Private families should also provide liberally so as to be able if necessary, in an emergency, to spare to those who are in need. Under no circumstances must exorbitant charges be made for food, or service rendered. Our guests must be treated with the utmost courtesy, extended with pleasure and cordiality. All must unite in this or our guests would have reason to form an unfavorable opinion of us.

Houses must not be hitched on any of the important streets and only in such portions of the village as shall be permitted by the parade and law and order committee. Wagons, carriages and buggies must not be stored on our streets or alleys to obstruct in any manner. The village water must be used economically—no sprinkling of lawns on the 27 or the 28—water used only for necessary purposes and to have in reserve in the water tower in case of fire or emergency. Conveniences for supplying drinking water on Thursday should be arranged by placing barrels in front yards with a small stream running from garden hose, with cups in readiness for use in drinking. All business houses and private residences within the village limits should be decorated with American flags, bunting and artistic decorations wherever possible. Special effort should be made to make residences and buildings attractive along the line that the procession is likely to drive, in going from the depot to the north entrance of the park.

All persons who can give some assistance in building the necessary stands, seats, arches, etc., are earnestly requested to give what time they can. Yards, streets and alleys should be cleaned and made as presentable as possible. Earnest, hearty co-operation on the part of all is urged, and this request is issued in the interest of the good name of our village and to insure comfort to our guests.

BUCHANAN, MICH., May 22.
Genesee Pure Food Co., LeRoy, N.Y.: Gentlemen:—My mamma has been a great coffee drinker and has found it very injurious. Having used several packages of your GRAIN-O, the drink that takes the place of coffee, she finds it much better for herself and for us children to drink. She has given up coffee drinking entirely. We use a package every week. I am ten years old. Yours respectfully,
FANNIE WILLIAMS.

DALLIN'S ROAD.

Dowagiac's Man Has Great Faith in Enterprise.

Dowagiac News: Mr. Dallin's new Eastern & Northwestern railroad will strike Sister Lakes.

This point has been determined by the people of the resort subscribing $1500 to get it there. Mr. Dallin made the proposition that he would run the line through that place in consideration of the sum named above and the enterprising people got out and have already subscribed it.

This will be a great advantage to the people of Dowagiac as well as the natives of the lakes, as resorters can easily visit back and forth between their summer homes. It is thought that the old electric road from Benton Harbor to Sister Lakes will be purchased and utilized.

Work on the line in this city has been transferred from the Beckwith estate ground to the Wilson place near the upper mill pond, where ground was broken Thursday. Mr. C. E. White closed a deal for the right-of-way across the Wilson property a few days ago. The papers had to be sent to Edward Wilson, of Minneapolis, for his signature and some delay was occasioned. Work will be continued from this place east.

It is also announced that a gang of men will start to work west of the city next week. Mr. Dallin has been in the city the past few days looking over the situation.

The Daily Hustler, of Three Rivers, publishes the following letter, which was recently written by Mayor Richey in response to a request from a citizen of that place asking for information on the railroad situation:

Dear Sir: Your favor is at hand and I will give you the most reliable information that I have on the subject about which you have made inquiries. Mr. Dallin began work at this point on the proposed railroad and has surveyors employed in selecting the route from here toward the east. Parties who are opposed to the construction of the road seem to be trying to throw every obstacle in the way of its progress possible. I feel from all I can learn from the most reliable sources, that the road will be built within the time indicated by Mr. Dallin in his contract with the different municipalities that have voted bonds in aid of the construction based upon its being completed and running from Benton Harbor to Toledo within the time specified. As far as I can judge, the right of way is being secured and the route settled upon as rapidly as it can be done under the circumstances.

PINGREE, FERRY ET AL

Democratic Convention Call Denounces.

Editorial Grand Rapids Press: "The most unkindest cut of all" is that received by Governor Pingree from the democratic state central committee. In its call for a state convention it asserts that "The public affairs of the people of Michigan are now controlled by ambitious and unscrupulous tricksters who merely use the machinery of the republican party to advance their own selfish purposes. Emboldened by repeated success at the polls, they have shamelessly repudiated their platform pledges, have increased taxes to the point of practical confiscation by making property unprofitable, and have disgraced the state by an unparalleled saturnalia of extravagance, bribery and thievery."

Such a ribald attack as this on a reform governor, and particularly on a tax reform governor, is calculated to animate every fiber of his being with bellicose indignation. But worse follows:

"That they expect to continue the same policy and practices of personal profit and aggrandizement at the expense of the people is shown by the enormous sums of money which each of their three factions are now spending to pack caucuses, bribe delegates and buy nominations on the republican ticket. It is therefore plain that neither equal taxation nor lower taxation can be expected of officials elected on that ticket, and the democratic state central committee hereby cordially invites all good citizens, regardless of their political views and affiliations, to unite with us in rebuking extravagance, bribery and theft by nominating and electing state officers who will give us an honest and economical administration."

What! Hazen S. Pingree classed along with Ferry and "Jim," or rather Ferry and "Jim" classed with Hazen S. Pingree! It was too much to expect, perhaps, that the committee could resist the temptation of a fling at the military scandal, but the tact and good politics of this extremely bitter and wholesale denunciation of Mr. Pingree's administration may be questioned. It is not strictly accurate, and it will hardly attract the good will of dissatisfied republican voters, which in a state so uniformly and overwhelmingly republican as Michigan has been for many years is a matter of some importance.

Michigan War Claims All Ready for Uncle Sam's Inspection.

Lansing, June 23.—The work of preparing Michigan's war claim for presentation to the general government was completed yesterday and today Maj. Stone and Capt. McDonald will leave for Washington to file it with the war department officials. The tabulation of the vouchers is a most artistic piece of work, and so far as this feature is concerned the claim is in admirable shape. Maj. Stone and Capt. McDonald will take with them about a half ton of vouchers and other documents, and propose to be in shape to answer completely any question that may be propounded concerning any item in the budget. The force that prepared the claims, making the copies of vouchers, etc., has worked steadily 12 hours per day for the past three months.

Eaton's Grand Jury.

Charlotte, June 23.—The fact that Judge Smith has ordered a grand jury to be drawn is creating a good deal of discussion, but the general inference is that when the jury convenes, which may probably not be for some weeks, it will be to look into the matter of violations of the liquor law and there is quite a little uneasiness among certain liquor dealers in consequence.

LOST AN OPPORTUNITY.

Michigan Delegation Failed to Get Into Roosevelt Band Wagon.

Detroit Evening News: Michigan's delegation exhibited an amusing hesitation in its action with regard to vice president, the only vote in which there was any opportunity to gain prestige. Some of the other states, notably Wisconsin, saw the inevitable when New York and Pennsylvania shaped their delegations with unanimity for Roosevelt, and governed themselves accordingly. But a young man named Doliver, who had spellbound the Michigan delegates once or twice at Michigan club banquets, seemed to have them hypnotized. While delegation after delegation made swift jumps for the Roosevelt toboggan, Michigan kept looking backward and westward until the party had fairly started down the chute. Even then the awakening was slow and the break the Michigan men made for the toboggan was such an undecided, scattering affair that some of them had difficulty in catching on. The Michigan managers appear to have made a bad ride of it on a very stanch mount, and had much difficulty in finishing inside the flag.

WEARY OF LIFE.

Alarming Increase of Suicides Among Women.

It is well for a woman to study herself and learn how to avoid the feeling of despondency, resulting from the monotony of a life of anxiety, care and pain, which seems the destined lot of so many women.

When the nerves are strong and vigorous, and the blood rich and pure, women will not feel the burdens of household duties nor the many weaknesses so peculiar to her sex. She will be able to vigorously bear her part in life, strong, brave and happy.

Mrs. W. G. Copeland, of Cortland, N. Y., wife of the former proprietor of the Messenger House, tells how Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills lifted her out of despair into health and happiness. She says:

"Were it not for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills, I should have been a martyr to nervous disorders. My life was one of weakness and physical as well as mental misery, my mind being filled with constant forebodings of coming evil. I am happy to say that now all this is changed. A careful use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills has made me feel almost youthful again. The help I derived from them was wonderful in restoring me to health and in strengthening my nerves."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills create new and rich blood and vigorous nerves. Their use will make the pinched pale faces of weak women glow with health and color, and restore the wasted nerves to a state of vigorous life and vitality. A few weeks treatment will positively restore lost vigor in men or women however caused. Price 50c. a box, all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

THREE Oaks is in a hubbub over the preparations for the cannon unveiling next week. President Warren will be obliged to get out of bed early tomorrow morning and keep a vigilant watch all day or some of the enthusiasts will break the sabbath in order to make sure that everything is in readiness for the crowd.

THE announcement of the candidacy of City Attorney Ellsworth for probate judge comes not unexpected. Mr. Ellsworth is one of the most popular citizens of Benton Harbor and the best thing about it all is that his friends have urged his candidacy and the boom was well under way before he was consulted. It was not until this morning that he would consent to the use of his name. The vice presidency sought Roosevelt and now a Berrien county office is seeking Mr. Ellsworth. Perhaps the good old days are coming back again. The friends of Mr. Ellsworth give the assurance that they will not interfere with the preserves of any of the other Benton Harbor candidates.

Reduction in the Sheriff's Posse at St. Louis Ordered.
CONDITIONS SEEM TO WARRANT IT.
A Judge Decides That All Arrests Made by Members of the Body Are Illegal—Protest Against the Boycott.

St. Louis, June 23.—Cars are being run on all divisions of the St. Louis Transit company's system in the day time and at night owl cars are operated on the Olive street, Laclade, Delmar and Page avenue lines as far west as Taylor avenue. General Manager Baumhoff says that owl cars will be run on other lines when a demand exists for them. To all appearances, aside from the light traffic, the only thing that might indicate a strike is the presence of armed men, members of the posse comitatus, on guard around the power houses and car sheds of the Transit company. The police barracks have been deserted and the police are no longer held in reserve about the stations to answer riot calls. Members of the posse being kept in the stations at night for that purpose.

In accordance with instructions issued by the board of police commissioners to Sheriff Pohlman the posse comitatus will be reduced to 500 men. It was decided by the police board that the time had come when a large body of armed men were no longer needed to preserve the peace. The posse will be reduced by paroling or furloughing individual members. The men on parole will be subject to calls in case of trouble. Unless the situation grows worse the men will not be recalled until the Fourth of July, when it is expected about 1,500 men will be on duty.

Representatives of various business houses have besieged the headquarters of the Street Railway union in Wahalla hall protesting that the boycotts declared against them are unmerited and unjust. Several had been declared by other unions, and in these cases Secretary Mack Missick directs the complainants to appeal to those unions which had declared them. In a bulletin issued Friday the unions are advised to act slowly and with care in declaring boycotts and to take no steps without according a hearing to those against whom action is proposed. Judge Zimmerman made a ruling in the South St. Louis police court Friday that arrests made by members of the sheriff's posse are illegal, unless in case of a riot or in crowds. The ruling was made in the case of persons who were arrested by members of the posse on charges of offenses alleged to have been committed in connection with the strike. Judge Zimmerman ordered the defendants discharged and announced that in future he would not enter such cases.

The most important occurrence of the day was the arrest of Ora Havill on suspicion of being connected with the recent dynamite explosions which have taken place along the lines of the Transit company.

TRADE REVIEW.
Conditions in Commercial Circles as Seen by the Dun and Bradstreet Agencies.

New York, June 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The damage to the wheat crop of the north-west is the event of chief importance. How extensive the loss may prove, in view of widely conflicting accounts, can only be judged from the speculative markets in which information gathered at the west has caused a remarkable advance, at Chicago 5 cents in ten days, and the price here has advanced 11 cents per bushel, though for the September option only nine cents. The belief is that so large a part of the spring wheat has been killed as to reduce a yield expected to be close to the largest on record to considerably less than the world has required during the crop year now ending. "The closing of manufacturing works at this season usually has a double meaning. The labor organizations see in the summer vacation a settlement of wages for the coming year. Last year the pressure for advance was so great that concessions were readily made and others later, so that the rate of wages became the highest ever known since the currency was depreciated. This year extensive demands are being made without approach to settlement as yet in many of the branches of business, so that the summer vacation may be more extensive and in some lines longer than usual. There will be time to work out excessive stocks in some lines and to adjust prices to a new basis for the latter half of the year. "The shipments of boots and shoes—only 233,743 cases in three weeks of June—are over 20 per cent. smaller than in 1899 or 1898, and smaller by ten per cent. or more in other years. The jobbers still appear inclined to wait, and some manufacturers decline quotations recently named and have closed or reduced force. "Failures for the week have been 179 in the United States, against 175 last year, and 25 in Canada, against 18 last year. "Bradstreet's says: "Midsummer dullness in distributive trade and industry and further reductions of prices of manufactured goods, particularly iron and steel, and raw textiles, but a marked upward movement in nearly all agricultural products are the leading features of the business situation this week. Wheat has advanced 14 cents per bushel since June 1 and 20 cents from the low point reached in November, a gain over the latter period of 27 per cent. in price. Corn crop advices are still in a high degree encouraging, but that cereal has sympathized with wheat, as have also oats, and hog products have in turn felt the quickening influence of higher prices for corn. Improved demand for dairy products is reflected in slight advances this week."

A Stitch in Time Saves Nine.

A broken stitch, like the "little rift within the lute," is the beginning of trouble. "I am tired, not ill." "It will soon pass away." "I don't believe in medicine." These are the broken stitches that lead to serious illness. Nature is wise and in Hood's Sarsaparilla she has furnished the means to take up broken stitches. Why? Because it starts at the root and cleanses the blood.

Bad Blood—"For years I was troubled with my blood, my face was pale, I never felt well. Three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla made me feel better and gave me a healthy color." Mae Cross, 24 Cedar Ave., South, Minneapolis, Minn.

SECRET TUNNEL IS FOUND.
It Is Found to Lead from Old College Building to Lord Dunmore's House.

A large subterranean passage, starting under the old college of William and Mary at Williamsburg, Va., with two separate divisions, was discovered by accident the other day. One of the divisions runs towards Lord Dunmore's ichehouse.

An exploring party went about 140 yards, when a locked and barred door impeded their progress. The passage is about four feet broad, now and then widening into an open room eight by eight feet. It is well built and lined with brick and granite.

President Lyon G. Tyler stopped the investigation and ordered the entrance to be closed until the end of the session, when he will make a formal investigation, together with the state authorities. The passage is believed to be an ancient means of escape from the old college to Lord Dunmore's house.

FLOATING HOTELS.
Scheme of the Coffee and Sugar Magnate to Give the Business Man a Summer Outing.

Amid the harrowing cares of life in a great city in summer how many people long for a chance to go out and seek the cooling repose of the ocean. An extensive trip of this kind is out of the reach of the average man, and for the busy man there is no time. But it is for just this class of people that John R. Arbuckle, the coffee and sugar magnate, is fitting up a series of floating hotels.

These will put to sea each night, returning in time for business in the morning. Meals will be served, music will be furnished and the prices will be moderate, it is said.

The four vessels that are being fitted out at Van Brunt street are the old Black Ball liner Jacob A. Stabler, the schooner yacht Gilania, the schooner Hermit, and the ocean going tug John Harlin, which is to act as a tender.

In the Same Class.
Wife—Don't you think this bonnet is a perfect dream?

Smoke

Is a most disagreeable feature of a beautiful city and the question has been discussed and cussed in every manner, shape and form, but with very few satisfactory results. Last fall The Evening News had placed in its boiler Gaul's Smoke Consumer and Fuel Economizer and in recommending it to the public we do so with a full knowledge of the benefits to be derived. It consumes the soot, thus doing away with that disagreeable feature and saves from 10 to 25 per cent in fuel which is one of the biggest items of interest to all users of coal.

We would respectfully invite all interested to call and examine and see for themselves the benefits we are receiving daily. Full particulars gladly given at The Evening News office.

The regular and early deliveries of fruit which we are making on shipments, consigned via our steamer Frank Woods for the 'Chicago' market have earned many kind words of commendation from our patrons. Just ask your neighbor about it and bear in mind that we are devoting our energies especially to the local fruit trade, that we turn neither to the right nor left but go direct to our dock at Benton Harbor to the best fruit dock in Chicago, and that our service is unequalled for the use of the growers who desire to sell their fruit on the morning market. He Is Now Duke of Argyll and Head of the Campbells.

Married to Princess Louise, One of Queen Victoria's Daughters — Was Governor General of Canada for a Number of Years.

The duke of Argyll, John George Edward Henry Douglas Sutherland Campbell, is 35 years of age. The courtesy title by which he had been known all his life until now was the marquis of Lorne. When the queen paid her first visit to Inverary castle the marquis was only two years of age, but she seems even then to have formed a high opinion of the little fellow who was to become her son-in-law. Unlike his father, the marquis of Lorne was educated at public schools and universities, both in England and Scotland. He studied at the Edinburgh university, at Eton, at St. Andrew's university, and at Trinity college, Cambridge; and at the age of 23 became the representative of Argyllshire in the house of commons, a constituency which he represented unopposed for ten years. The most important event, of course, in the marquis' life was his marriage to Princess Louise, which was celebrated on March 21, 1871, at St. George's chapel, Windsor, with much splendor, the bride being given away by her royal mother. The marriage was a most popular one at the time in the country, which was not too well pleased to see the hands of several of the queen's daughters being bestowed upon practically nameless and penniless German princes. It very naturally increased the reputation of the Campbell clan, the eldest son of whose chief was thought worthy to wed a royal princess. The people of the west Highlands were credited at the time with thinking that the obligation was not all on one side, and many will yet remember the amusing cartoon in Punch which represented an old Highland woman, on hearing that the princess was to marry a son of the MacCallum More, saying: "The queen will be a proud woman this day."

The new duke of Argyll, says the Chicago Record, is not by any means a wealthy man as that word is used nowadays. The estates are extensive, but where they are not deer forests or large sheep farms they are for the most part peopled by crofters, who have often much to pay the rent. When the late duke came into the property on the death of his father, in April, 1899, the estates, it is understood, were heavily mortgaged and the income from them available for the duke was said to be under $5000 a year. During his long life his grace devoted himself to clearing off the debt of the estates and to acquiring portions of the land which had been parted with. This he was enabled to do through always having lived in a very quiet and unostentatious manner, both at Inverary castle and in London. The new duke will take possession of the estates in a very different position from that in which his father inherited them, though the income from them even yet is not at all an overpowering character. The new duke has no family and his heir is accordingly his brother, Lord Archibald, who is a banker in London, and through whose family the succession will in all likelihood be continued.

After Mr. Gladstone, whom in many ways he mentally resembled, the late duke was possibly the most accomplished public man in Britain of the last half of the nineteenth century. He was a politician, scientist, author and orator. Like all the older generation of Scotland to which he belonged, he had a great fondness for ecclesiastical controversy, but, indeed, the duke's splendid intellectual equipment made him go tilting in many a ring, and as a controversialist he had few equals. His knowledge in science and theology may not have been profound, but he believed in himself and in his own view of things, and his skill as a letter writer and his brilliancy as an orator made him an opponent worthy the steel of any adversary.

The ancient burial place of the Argylls is in Kilman churchyard—a picturesque little place on the side of Holy Loch, which opens off the Firth of Clyde. The vaults are surmounted by a fine domed circular building. Among the chiefs of the Campbell clan whose bones repose in this mausoleum are the Earl Archibald, who fell at Flodden, and the unfortunate marquis who was beheaded at the market cross of Edinburgh, May 27, 1661.

CONCERT GARDEN IN CHURCH.

New Idea in the Construction of House of Worship in Indiana.

The structure being erected by the congregation of the Central Christian church, Columbus, Ind., will have the novel distinction of being the only church in Christendom that will have a roof garden. The idea was suggested to the congregation by the pastor, Elder E. B. Widger, and his plans for the work were unanimously approved. It is the intention to use the roof garden for summer services, especially for Sunday evenings, and for week-day socials and entertainments. The seating capacity of this novel auditorium will be as large as the first floor of the church, which will be used for winter services only. A slate roof will be erected over the open auditorium for protection in case of sudden rainstorms, but the sides will be entirely open, except that screen wiring will be placed entirely around it for protection from insects. It is proposed that potted plants of various kinds be placed in convenient places in the open auditorium.

The church building occupies a conspicuous place on Seventh street, between Mechanic and Pearl streets, and is constructed of brick and stone, with the exception of the upper story, where wooden posts support the roof to the open auditorium. A spacious basement affords an excellent Sunday school room.

ACTRESS' INVOLUNTARY BATH

Peculiar Mishap at Atlantic City Almost Costs Miss Fleming's Life.

Miss Viola Fleming, one of the leading members of the Dunbar Opera company, and a well-known operatic star, was nearly drowned the other night at Atlantic City, N. J., owing to a peculiar accident. It was at the end of the first act in "The Beggar Student," in which a large chipping dish filled with potatoes is used. During the past week a quantity of vegetables accumulated which the property man threw down the trap into the sea.

The theater is located on a pier and about 25 feet above the water. He forgot to close the trap, and at the call for the second act Miss Fleming, who was late in changing her costume, came running down the stairway from her dressing-room. In her haste she did not notice the opening and plunged head first into the surf. Her screams brought help and an employe dived off the pier and rescued the struggling actress. Dr. Eugene Reed, who was on the structure at the time, soon restored her.

MATRIMONIAL JOKE NO JOKE.

A Frolicking Young Couple in Kansas Unintentionally Become Married.

Mary Myers and Will Harris, of Kingfisher, Okla., were great jokers. They played pranks on their neighbors and on each other, but the other day they played a joke that may end seriously, or happily, neither can tell which. Harris asked Mary to marry him in a joke, and as a joke she said she would. So they went to the probate judge and told him what a great joke it would be to get married in that way, and asked him if he would be an accessory to the joke. The judge said he would gladly enter into the spirit of the thing, and so the jokers asked a number of their friends to the wedding, and the judge pronounced them man and wife. After the wedding the judge called them aside and showed the license, and said they were married in earnest. The young couple are talking it over, with a view to either getting a divorce or carrying out the joke to the bitter end.

A Universal Yes.

Single, married, widowed or divorced? That is the most comprehensive of all the census questions, though it might have included, says the Boston Herald, a query as to whether one had ever been in love.

The Chicago Tribune

is a newspaper for bright and intelligent people. It is made up to attract people who think it is not neutral or colorless, constantly trimming in an endeavor to please both sides, but it is independent in the best sense of the word.
It has pronounced opinions and is fearless in expressing them, but it is always fair to its opponents.
Matters of national or vital public interest get more space in THE TRIBUNE than in any other paper in the West.
For these reasons it is the newspaper you should read during the forthcoming political campaign.
THE TRIBUNE'S financial columns never mislead the public.
Its facilities for gathering news, both local and foreign, are far superior to those of any other newspaper in the West.
It presents the news in as fair a way as possible, and lets its readers form their opinions.
While it publishes the most comprehensive articles on all news features, if you are busy
the "Summary of THE DAILY TRIBUNE" published daily on the first page gives you briefly all the news of the day within one column.
Its sporting news is always the best, and its Sunday Pink Sporting Section is better than any sporting paper in the country.
It is the "cleanest" daily printed in the West.

KEEP ROBERTS BUSY

His Close Attention Required by Gen. Steyn's Forces.
BRISK FIGHTING LIKELY TO OCCUR.
Expulsion from the Transvaal of 1,400 Boers and Their Families
Is Reported—One of Kruger's Pence Conditions.
London, June 23.—Gen. Steyn's forces in the Orange river colony are for the time drawing most of the attention of Lord Roberts, rather to the neglect of Commandant Gen. Louis Botha and President Kruger. The severance between the Transvaal and the Orange river colony was completed Friday, as Lord Roberts said it would be, by the arrival of Gen. Buller's advance guard, under Lord Dundonald, at St. Anderson. The wide net around the 6,000 or 8,000 men under Gen. Steyn will now contract. Adroit maneuvering and brisk fighting are likely to take place, because until all resistance south of the Vaal is at an end the British line of communications will not be safe.
President Kruger's sons, who surrendered to Gen. Baden-Powell, are back on their farms and working peacefully.
Gen. Baden-Powell rode with only 300 men from Mafeking, and he made the last section of his ride to Pretoria with only 35.
One of Kruger's Demands.
Lorenzo Marques, June 23.—President Kruger's principal condition for immediate peace is that he be allowed to stay in the country. There are 5,000
British sick and wounded at Pretoria.
Boers to Be Expelled.
Amsterdam, June 23.—The Netherlands Railroad company, of South Africa, has received official notification of the expulsion from the Transvaal of 1,400 of its employees, with their families.
The Dutch consul at Lorenzo Marques has been issued to the effect that the company's officials, who refuse to do British military transport work, will be sent to Europe via East London.
Cape Colony.
Humming the Boers In.
New York, June 23.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Gen.
Buller's advance to Sandfontein is almost the only fresh point in the military situation in South Africa. His march is in the direction of Standerton, which commands the road northward from Vrede. Lord Roberts has announced his plan of operations already, and the occupation of Heidelberg by the forces from Johannesburg may confidently be expected within 48 hours. The remnants of President Kruger's and Steyn's armies will then be separated and gradually hemmed in and disarmed.
Military men are not surprised by the delay on the British side. They assert that the business of feeding over 200,000 soldiers in a country where food is scarce is a most serious undertaking. The magnitude of the British army is a hindrance to its mobility and to decisive operations, since the transport problem is one of enormous difficulty and prevents rapid work. Gens. Roberts and Buller, moreover, are compelled to go slowly and disarm the burghers day by day. Immense districts are to be pacified and the arms must be secured from every house on the line of march. Gen. Roberts' work is done very thoroughly and requires time.
Rumors have been revived that Gens.
Botha and Dewet will surrender their forces if they can gain points by negotiating, but these appear to be premature. Dewet has not yet been thoroughly beaten, and Botha came near surrounding French's troops during the last battle. The story that the bridge on the Delagoa railway was blown up by the premature explosion of a mine is hardly credible.

Smoke

Is a most disagreeable feature of a beautiful city and the question has been discussed and cussed in every manner, shape and form, but with very few satisfactory results. Last fall The Evening News had placed in its boiler Gaul's Smoke Consumer and Fuel Economizer and in recommending it to the public we do so with a full knowledge of the benefits to be derived. It consumes the soot, thus doing away with that disagreeable feature and saves from 10 to 25 per cent in fuel which is one of the biggest items of interest to all users of coal.

We would respectfully invite all interested to call and examine and see for themselves the benefits we are receiving daily. Full particulars gladly given at The Evening News office.

He is Now Duke of Argyll and Head of the Campbells.

Married to Princess Louise, One of Queen Victoria's Daughters—Was Governor General of Canada for a Number of Years.

The duke of Argyll, John George Edward Henry Douglas Sutherland Campbell, is 35 years of age. The courtesy title by which he had been known all his life until now was the marquis of Lorne. When the queen paid her first visit to Inverary castle the marquis was only two years of age, but she seems even then to have formed a high opinion of the little fellow who was to become her son-in-law. Unlike his father, the marquis of Lorne was educated at public schools and universities, both in England and Scotland. He studied at the Edinburgh university, at Eton, at St. Andrew's university, and at Trinity college, Cambridge; and at the age of 23 became the representative of Argyllshire in the house of commons, a constituency which he represented unopposed for ten years. The most important event, of course, in the marquis' life was his marriage to Princess Louise, which was celebrated on March 21, 1871, at St. George's chapel, Windsor, with much splendor, the bride being given away by her royal mother. The marriage was a most popular one at the time in the country, which was not too well pleased to see the hands of several of the queen's daughters being bestowed upon practically nameless and penniless German princes. It very naturally increased the reputation of the Campbell clan, the eldest son of whose chief was thought worthy to wed a royal princess. The people of the west Highlands were credited at the time with thinking that the obligation was not all on one side, and many will yet remember the amusing cartoon in Punch which represented an old Highland woman, on hearing that the princess was to marry a son of the MacCallum More, saying: "The queen will be a proud woman this day."

NEW DUKE OF ARGYLL

ing that the princess was to marry a son of the MacCallum More, saying: "The queen will be a proud woman this day."

The new duke of Argyll, says the Chicago Record, is not by any means a wealthy man as that word is used nowadays. The estates are extensive, but where they are not deer forests or large sheep farms they are for the most part peopled by crofters, who have often much to do to pay the rent. When the late duke came into the property on the death of his father, in April, 1849, the estates, it is understood, were heavily mortgaged and the income from them available for the duke was said to be under $5000 a year. During his long life his grace devoted himself to clearing off the debt of the estates and to acquiring portions of the land which had been parted with. This he was enabled to do through always having lived in a very quiet and unostentatious manner, both at Inverary castle and in London. The new duke will take possession of the estates in a very different position from that in which his father inherited them, though the income from them even yet is not at all an overpowering character. The new duke has no family and his heir is accordingly his brother, Lord Archibald, who is a banker in London, and through whose family the succession will in all likelihood be continued.

After Mr. Gladstone, whom in many ways he mentally resembled, the late duke was possibly the most accomplished public man in Britain of the last half of the nineteenth century. He was a politician, scientist, author and orator. Like all the older generation of Scotland to which he belonged, he had a great fondness for ecclesiastical controversy, but, indeed, the duke's splendid intellectual equipment made him go tilting in many a ring, and as a controversialist he had few equals. His knowledge in science and theology may not have been profound, but he believed in himself and in his own view of things, and his skill as a letter writer and his brilliancy as an orator made him an opponent worthy the steel of any adversary.

The ancient burial place of the Argylls is in Kilmun churchyard—a picturesque little place on the side of Holy Loch, which opens off the Firth of Clyde. The vaults are surmounted by a fine domed circular building. Among the chiefs of the Campbell clan whose bones repose in this mausoleum are the Earl Archibald, who fell at Flodden, and the unfortunate marquis who was beheaded at the market cross of Edinburgh, May 27, 1661.

CONCERT GARDEN IN CHURCH.

New Idea in the Construction of House of Worship in Indiana.

The structure being erected by the congregation of the Central Christian church, Columbus, Ind., will have the novel distinction of being the only church in Christendom that will have a roof garden. The idea was suggested to the congregation by the pastor, Elder E. B. Widger, and his plans for the work were unanimously approved. It is the intention to use the roof garden for summer services, especially for Sunday evenings, and for week-day socials and entertainments. The seating capacity of this novel auditorium will be as large as the first floor of the church, which will be used for winter services only. A slate roof will be erected over the open auditorium for protection in case of sudden rainstorms, but the sides will be entirely open, except that screen wiring will be placed entirely around it for protection from insects. It is proposed that potted plants of various kinds be placed in convenient places in the open auditorium.

The church building occupies a conspicuous place on Seventh street, between Meacham and Pearl streets, and is constructed of brick and stone, with the exception of the upper story, where wooden posts support the roof to the open auditorium. A spacious basement affords an excellent Sunday school room.

ACTRESS' INVOLUNTARY BATH

Peculiar Mishap at Atlantic City Almost Costs Miss Fleming's Life.

Miss Viola Fleming, one of the leading members of the Dunbar Opera company, and a well-known operatic star, was nearly drowned the other night at Atlantic City, N. J., owing to a peculiar accident. It was at the end of the first act in "The Beggar Student," in which a large chopping dish filled with potatoes is used. During the past week a quantity of vegetables accumulated which the property man threw down the trap into the sea.

The theater is located on a pier and about 25 feet above the water. He forgot to close the trap, and at the call for the second act Miss Fleming, who was late in changing her costume, came running down the stairway from her dressing-room. In her haste she did not notice the opening and plunged head first into the surf. Her screams brought help and an employe dived off the pier and rescued the struggling actress. Dr. Eugene Reed, who was on the structure at the time, soon restored her.

MATRIMONIAL JOKE NO JOKE.

A Frolicking Young Couple in Kansas Unintentionally Become Married.

Mary Myers and Will Harris, of Kingfisher, Okla., were great jokers. They played pranks on their neighbors and on each other, but the other day they played a joke that may end seriously, or happily, neither can tell which. Harris asked Mary to marry him in a joke, and as a joke she said she would. So they went to the probate judge and told him what a great joke it would be to get married in that way, and asked him if he would be an accessory to the joke. The judge said he would gladly enter into the spirit of the thing, and so the jokers asked a number of their friends to the wedding, and the judge pronounced them man and wife. After the wedding the judge called them aside and showed the license, and said they were married in earnest. The young couple are talking it over, with a view to either getting a divorce or carrying out the joke to the bitter end.

News Notes About the Bustling Lake Town

Citizens on Wayne street were startled last evening by the sight of a man, clad only in a short negligee shirt, running up and down the street, slinging his arms wildly to and fro and yelling out at the top of his voice.

Residents rushed from their houses and started in pursuit of the almost nude man, who on first noticing his pursuers, increased his speed and threw his arms more wildly.

When captured the maniac was found to be Lewis Arthouse, a retired business man of this city.

Years ago Arthouse ran the largest store in Berrien county. Later he took to journalism and served some years as German editor of the Press. A few years ago his mind weakened and he has since lived all alone, an invalid, in his house on Wayne street. He is 72 years of age.

The performance last evening was caused by a temporary fit of insanity.

Murray Baird of South Bend was in the city Friday.

Carey Trammel of Buchanan, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Clara Wells entertained a number of friends at a dance party in her home on lake boulevard last evening.

The front door of Bradford's curio store was found wide open when the proprietor came to open up the establishment this morning. Mr. Bradford is unable to find anything missing.

Mrs. Sara E. Brownell, the spiritualist who is after that $10,000 the Graham & Morton company offer for the location of the wrecked Chicora, is in the city today. Mrs. Brownell declares she will locate the wreck within two weeks.

Officer Peterson arrested a hobo on the G. & M. dock last evening. The lazy fellow showed fight and for some time a regular rough and tumble scrap was on the bills. The plucky officer finally triumphed and walked his man to the city lock up.

GERMAN PUSH.

Her Interests in China and Japan Aggregate a Figure Close to $90,000,000.

Until recently Germany has taken no great part in the commercial development of China; but with the acquisition of a "sphere of influence," together with industrial concessions of various kinds, German interests in China and Japan aggregate a figure close to $90,000,000, according to Consular Agent Ernest L. Harris, at Eibenstock, in a report to the state department.

In 1898, German exports to China amounted to $10,424,000. The imports into Germany from China for the same year were $5,164,600. There are about 105 German warehouses in China of a total value of about $30,000,000, which render material assistance to German trade. These houses ship great cargoes of tea, rice and feathers to Germany, in return for machinery and iron products of every description. In Shanghai, there are German cotton and silk mills to the value of $1,000,000, and a German-Asiatic bank in that city does business with a capital of about $3,000,000. The interests of private individuals of German nationality in China are valued at $2,000,000. German capital to about $18,000,000 is invested in a great many English enterprises—the docks, shipping and insurance companies of Shanghai.

In Japan there are 65 German warehouses carrying on business with an aggregate capital of $5,000,000. German industrial enterprises in Japan are valued at $3,000,000, while $3,000,000, divided about evenly, has been invested in Formosa, which is ruled by Japan, and within Japan's "sphere of influence," in Corea.
